Key Relationships: Delivery team, Youth Work managers, Unicafé team, External Stakeholders, Young People and Parents

Job Purpose:

Unitas has a fantastic training kitchen whose purpose is to provide a way for young people to learn cooking in an informal, fun and engaging way. As a member of the Training Kitchen team, you will be part of group of youth workers who specialise in cooking, and you will be key in ensuring young people have access to an exciting and diverse programme of cooking that will be challenging, stimulating, fun, engaging and developmental.

You will be involved in session delivery, planning, preparation, and work with young people closely. You will be provided all the necessary equipment and training and will be afforded plentiful personal development opportunities. You will be someone with a clear ‘can do’ approach, committed to a growth mindset, eager to learn and willing to take risks, all for the benefit of supporting young people. You will demonstrate our Values through all you do and commit to always giving your best for young people.

Context of the post:

Barnet Youth Zone, named “Unitas” by local young people, was the second Youth Zone in London opened by the national charity, OnSide, in the summer of 2019. Unitas, like all OnSide Youth Zones, exists to give young people, particularly those who are disadvantaged, somewhere to go, something to do and someone to talk to. Each Youth Zone is open 5-7 days a week, all year round, with the purpose of supporting young people to become happy, healthy, and successful adults.

Unitas Youth Zone is centrally located, dedicated to young people, and makes a bold statement about the importance of giving young people high quality places to go in their leisure time. Open 6 days a week including school holidays, the Youth Zone’s vision is to unite young people to fulfil their full potential. The state-of-the-art £6.5 million building provides young people with access to a range of activities, all offering young people the opportunity to try new things, meet new friends and gain new experiences.

Duties and Responsibilities - General

- Be a role model for young people and present a positive “can do” attitude
- Take personal responsibility for own actions
- Commit to a culture of continuous improvement
- Work within the performance framework of Unitas Youth Zone and OnSide
- Represent Unitas Youth Zone positively and effectively in all dealings with internal colleagues, and external partners
- Comply with all policies and procedures, with reference to safeguarding, codes of conduct, health and safety and equality and diversity to ensure all activities are accessible
- To be alert to issues of safeguarding and child protection, ensuring the welfare and safety of Youth Zone members is promoted and safeguarded, and to report any child protection concerns to the Designated Safeguarding Leads using the safeguarding policies, procedures, and practice (training to be provided)
